Corn	Div. 454
Lettuce	Div. 455
Pumpkins	Div. 456
Winter Squash	Div. 457
Broccoli/Cauliflower	Div. 458

GENERAL RULES

1. Every entry must be entered in the name of the GROWER.
2. Anyone trying to deceive The Fair with regard to being the grower of their entries shall forfeit all claims as an exhibitor.
3. There will be a limit of one entry per exhibitor per class.
4. Each Agriculture and Horticulture Department exhibitor will receive one gate pass regardless of the number of items entered.
5. Use same exhibitor number and entry form for all agriculture and horticulture exhibits.
6. Money and ribbon will be paid only to first and second place winners, except for Junior Gardener, Bountiful Harvest Contest, Adult Division Scarecrow, and the Giant Pumpkin Competition. Third place will receive a ribbon only.
7. Only first, second and third place (blue, red and white) winners will be displayed. Non-placing entries may not be displayed. All entries not displayed will be donated to the Puyallup Food Bank. No items will be returned, unless you specifically ask that they be returned at the time of entry or during The Fair. At the end of Fair, you must pick up your items before 2 pm on Monday, Sept. 23 unless other arrangements are made to pick them up on a different day and time.
8. No entry item will be allowed to compete in more than one class for more than one premium. For example, if you have a collection of fruit for a fruit basket, you must have duplicates to compete in other classes.
9. Cash prizes will be paid in listed classes only. Ribbons will NOT be mailed. You may pick up your ribbons in the Agriculture Department office between Saturday, Aug. 31 and Sunday, Sept. 22 (The Fair is closed Tuesdays and Sept. 4). Checks will be mailed in November. Ribbons not picked up by end of The Fair will be discarded.
10. New and old variety classes are only for varieties not listed. If an item is placed in these classes, and there is a class listed for it, the entry will be disqualified. The name of each old and new variety must be named on the entry form.
11. In an effort to make sure only the best quality fruits/vegetables are displayed, you must have them checked at a check-in table where a staff member will ensure that no obviously damaged or blemished fruits/vegetables are entered.

12. Our Ag-Hort staff will help you prepare your entry, should you need any assistance.
13. Exhibitors entering fruit/vegetable classes, "Open for New Varieties," must have some proof that the entry is a new variety.
14. 1/2 tray equals an area approximately 10" x 12", and will be provided by The Fair.
15. A full plate equals 6" in diameter and will be provided by The Fair.
16. Any entry that has lost its exhibit value due to decomposition or drying may be discarded at the discretion of the Ag-Hort staff, including those exhibits requested to be returned.

FRUIT & VEGETABLE JUDGING RULES

Please remember these five important quality points before you bring in your fruit or vegetable exhibits:

FORM — should be typical for the variety for the locality where grown.

SIZE — fruit/vegetable should be of commercial size and conform to sizes given in connection with varieties listed.

COLOR — fruit/vegetable should have very high, clear, intense colors characteristic of the variety.

UNIFORMITY — all specimens should be uniform in color, size, form and maturity.

NO BLEMISHES — specimens for exhibit must be free from blemishes, including insect, disease and mechanical damage.

JUNIOR GARDENERS INFORMATION & RULES

This division is open to anyone ages 5–18 who has grown his/her own vegetables, or participated in the growing of the listed fruits to be eligible.

Junior Gardeners must bring their own entries. Parents should accompany Juniors. However, Juniors are to enter their exhibits themselves. Your vegetable and fruit entries and online entry summary/receipt will be your admittance pass into The Fair.

ONLINE ENTRY REGISTRATION DATES

NOTE: ENTRY DAY AND PLACE!!

Online entry registration will be accepted until Thursday, Sept. 12, 10 pm. Entry delivery time is 7 – 9:30 am, Saturday, Sept. 15 only. Take your entries and online entry summary/receipt to the Agriculture Department. Bring your entries in through the Blue Gate, or, if necessary, you may drive in through the Service Gate (on 5th Street SW, off of 15th Avenue SW). All cars must be off the grounds by 8:45 am.

Entry delivery days for Scarecrow classes will be:

Tuesday, Aug. 27, 10 am – 8 pm, or

Wednesday, Aug. 28, 8 am – 8 pm.

GENERAL RULES

1. Not all entries may be displayed. All entries not displayed will be donated to the Puyallup Food Bank. No items still displayed at the end of The Fair will be returned, unless you specifically ask that they be returned at the time of entry or during The Fair. The Fair reserves the right to discard any item that has lost its exhibit value. At the end of The Fair, you must pick up your return items by 2 pm Monday, Sept. 23 unless other arrangements are made to pick them up on a different day and time.
2. Any entry that has lost its exhibit value due to decomposition or drying may be discarded at the discretion of the superintendent.
3. No individual vegetable or fruit will be allowed to be entered in more than one class or compete for more than one premium. This means if you have a collection of vegetables, you must have duplicates to compete in other classes.
4. Cash prizes will be paid in listed classes only. Ribbons will no longer be mailed. You may pick up your ribbons in the Agriculture Department office Sunday, Sept. 15 - Sunday, Sept. 22 (The Fair is closed Tuesdays and Sept. 4). Checks will be mailed by November. Ribbons not picked up by end of Fair will be discarded.

5. Exhibits entered in fruit and vegetable classes should be true to type and variety, medium in size, uniform and of good quality.
6. In an effort to make sure only the best quality fruits and vegetables are displayed, the Ag-Hort staff will inspect your entry. No obviously damaged or blemished vegetables will be accepted for entry.
7. All root crops shall be washed and tops must be trimmed. Cabbage should be trimmed also.
8. A pumpkin must have a hard, five-(5) sided stem to be entered in the largest pumpkin class, 3005. A squash must have a soft round stem to be entered in the largest squash class, 3002.
9. A Grand Champion Rosette will be awarded to the exhibitor who receives the most points. The following point system will be used: all Junior exhibits receiving a first place rosette, will be awarded 3 points each. Exhibits receiving a second place rosette will receive 2 points for each one. Those exhibits receiving a third place rosette will be awarded 1 point each. The exhibitor receiving the most points will be the Junior Grand Champion.
10. You may pick up your ribbons any time after judging or during The Fair. Ribbons will not be mailed.
11. NO BERRIES will be accepted, except blueberries.

VEGETABLE CRITTERS

This contest is open to both youth and adults. Youth must be 5 -15 years of age. See below for age/class listing.

Online entry registration will be accepted until Thursday, Sept. 12, 10 pm. Entry delivery times are 7 – 9:30 am Saturday, Sept. 14. Bring your entry and your online entry summary/ receipt in through the Blue Gate to the Agriculture Department. Your critter will be your admittance pass to The Fair. Judging will take place Saturday, Sept. 14, 10 am.

1. The vegetable critters must be made from vegetables grown by the exhibitor.
2. A small amount of non-vegetable material may be used for accent on your critter.
3. Each exhibitor must put their critter together at home and bring it to The Fair for entry.
4. Any critter that has lost its exhibit value due to decomposition will be discarded.
5. The champion of each class will receive a trophy. Trophies will not be mailed. You may pick up your trophies and ribbons any time after judging, or during The Fair in the Agriculture Office.

BOUNTIFUL HARVEST

This contest is open to everyone. Online entry registration will be accepted until Sunday, Aug. 25, 10 pm.

The Fair will provide a pedestal for your display that measures 22" x 24" x 30" high. You must stay within this space. You may inspect the pedestal Tuesday, Aug. 27 - Wednesday, Aug. 28 in the Agriculture Building, 10 am – 8 pm.

Your display must be in place by 8 pm, Wednesday, Aug. 28. Take your entries to the Agriculture Department.

Prizes include $100 and a rosette for first place, $50 and a rosette for second place, $25 and a rosette for third place.

All produce in your display must come from your garden or a family garden in which you have worked.

Judging will be based on:

- Artistic Arrangement
- Quality of Produce
- Good use of Space
- Variety of Produce

Flowers, canned goods or artificial produce will not be allowed in your display.

Only edible fruits and vegetables may be included.

Only one entry per exhibitor is allowed, and each exhibitor must create their own design.

Bountiful Harvest exhibits will be displayed for the entire duration of The Fair unless the Ag-Hort staff determines that the entry has lost its exhibit value due to decomposition of drying. At the end of The Fair, you must pick up your Bountiful Harvest Displays by 2 pm, Monday, Sept. 23 unless other arrangements are made to pick them up on a different day and time.
