ANIMAL HEALTH REGULATIONS:

See Veterinarian Information, link on page 3.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO POULTRY AND PIGEON EXHIBITORS

Avian influenza is a highly contagious viral disease among all species of birds. Our exhibitors should be advised that the scheduled 2018 Poultry and Pigeon shows may be cancelled if conditions warrant. In the event of a cancellation, entry fees, if applicable, will be refunded. All bird entries must have a NPIP number or a store receipt where purchased. Please bring items with you at check in or attach to entry form.

Exhibitors:

1. During the Fair, ALL vehicles must be off the grounds by 9 am or the vehicle will be towed.
2. All Master Entry Forms & 2nd page must be emailed or postmarked by August 25, 2018. No late or emailed entries will be accepted. The show reserves the right to limit entries. Any bill due to the Exposition will be paid before prize money is paid, or will be taken from premiums. Otherwise, exhibitors won't be permitted to show next year until their account is settled.
3. All poultry exhibits must be delivered to the Exposition at the Washington State Fair by 8 am on September 19, 2018. Late entries will not be accepted. Use the Service Gate on 5th Street SW, off of 15th Avenue SW.
4. The Exposition suggests that no more than four birds are put in a crate. Allow plenty of ventilation.
5. Each crate must have a solid bottom and have clean bedding to protect the appearance of the entry. SOILED

OR DIRTY BIRDS WILL BE REJECTED BY SHOW MANAGEMENT. Crates must be removed from the grounds or they will be disposed of by show management.

6. All exhibitors attending the show must be responsible to a high school agriculture instructor or a 4-H leader. Other interested youth must be responsible to an adult.
7. Instructors and leaders are responsible for the completion and accuracy of entry form. Exhibitors must fill out a master form for each entry. Improper or incomplete entries will be disqualified. Entries will be judged as entered.
8. 4-H Club members and FFA members will not compete against each other, unless there are less than five entries in a class/group.
9. Birds must be owned or managed by the exhibitor at least 60 days prior to the show, and must be entered by breed, variety and sex.
10. All birds must be properly banded before they are delivered to the Poultry Building. If you have any old bands or bands on your birds, you may use them. Numbered bands may be purchased at the show for $1.00 each, while supplies last.
11. An exhibitor will enter only as 4-H, FFA, or other interested youth.
12. Due to cage limitations, the same bird cannot compete in two divisions. Fryer contest birds are only eligible for exhibit in the commercial division. Exhibitors will be limited to a total of 25 birds. There will be a limit of 800 birds in the show. Extra birds will not be judged and charged $1.00 per day for boarding.
13. Due to the limited number of available 10x10 outside pens, exhibitors showing large fowl may be limited to one pen on a first-come, first-serve basis. The manager will contact those exhibitors who have NOT been assigned a pen.
14. Sifting committees will inspect all exhibits for proper entry. All birds must pass disease and parasite inspection by veterinarians upon arrival and during the show. Inspect your birds! Clean birds are YOUR responsibility. Diseased birds and birds with lice or mites will be rejected. Dust your birds 14 days before the show. The show management or vet will deny entry to any animal or exhibit they deem unworthy for public display.
15. All exhibitors must do fitting and showing, an education poster plus three, one hours shift of birdsmanship during the show to receive premiums. Showing the public your passion for birds and the project is encouraged. See sign up sheet on page 23 for instructions on signing up for birdsmanship. Pick three times for required birdsmanship. Located under Birdmanship, on page 23, are links. Time slots are filled on a first come, first served basis.

16. The Exposition will provide feed and proper care. Feed is the property of Purina Feed Division and the Washington State Fair. It is not to be removed from the grounds.
17. Hybrids developed for laying purposes can be entered in the commercial class.
18. All entries will be accepted with the understanding that neither the show organization, nor the Washington State Fair or their officers shall be held responsible for any damage or loss that may arise to poultry and other exhibits on exhibition.
19. Bantams described in American Standard of Perfection or American Bantam Association Standard will be allowed. NO HYBRIDS OR CROSSES.
20. Birds must be removed by exhibitor. The Exposition suggests that birds be quarantined for 30 days before re-entering home flocks to eliminate possibility of introducing diseases to home flocks.
21. No sales will be permitted in the Poultry Barn, nor will "FOR SALE" cards be permitted on cages or on Washington State Fair property.
22. WJPE (the show) is hosted by Washington State Fair (the fair). Address any conflicts to show manager, not Fair staff. Conflict Resolution must be followed in the order listed below.

SHELL EGG EXHIBITS SCORE CARD EXPLANATION

1. Uniformity of weight: One percent will be cut for each egg falling outside of the weight prescribed for the size class as defined by the U.S. Standards, Grades, and Weight Classes for Shell Eggs.

Jumbo	29+ oz.
Extra Large	26-29 oz.
Large	23-26 oz.
Medium	20-23 oz.
Small	17-20 oz.
Peewee	up to 17 oz.

2. Shell Quality: Shells should be sound and free of checks or leakers. A cut of 1 percent will be made for checks. Leakers, as defined by a broken shell membrane, shall incur a cut of 2 percent. Eggs should be oval and tapered, about 1-1 1/2 times as long as they are thick.

Shells should be of smooth texture, free from bumps, wrinkles, or ridges, and show no weak spots, mottling, or excessive porousness. A cut of 1/4 to 1 1/2 percent will be made for intact shells showing any of these defects. The size of the cut will be determined by the severity of the defect.

3. Cleanliness: Eggs should be clean and free from stains. Dirty eggs shall be defined as those with any foreign material adhering to the shell, including excessive oil or other treatments, and will be cut 1/2 to 1 percent depending upon the severity of the defect. Eggs that show prominent stains or light/moderate stains covering more than 1/16 of the shell surface will be cut the same as dirty eggs. Eggs that show light or moderate stains covering less than 1/16 of the shell surface will be cut 1/4 to 1/2 percent depending upon the size and severity of the stain.

CANDLING CONDITION

1. Air Cells: Air cells shall be evaluated based upon their depth in accordance with the U.S. Standards, Grades, and Weight Classes for Shell Eggs. A cut of 1/2 percent will apply to eggs showing an air cell deeper than 1/8", or 1 percent for eggs showing an air cell deeper than 3/16".
2. Interior Quality: The yolk shadow should be slightly defined and show slow movement within the egg, indicating a thick, high quality albumen. The yolk should appear yellow to orange and otherwise free from defects such as mottling or off color. The white should be firm, clear, and free from blood or meat spots. A cut of 1/4 to 2 percent will be made for each defect observed. The size of the cut will be determined by the severity of the defect. Multiple cuts may apply to an egg showing more than one of these defects.

DISQUALIFICATIONS

An egg will be disqualified if cracked or for showing loss qualities including bloody whites, rots (of any type), stuck yolks, or blood or meat spots larger than 1/8". One or more eggs disqualified do not affect the balance of the entry. A cut of 8 percent will be made for each egg disqualified.

AWARDS

Blue	a dozen scoring 90 percent or more
Red	a dozen scoring 80 - 89 percent
White	a dozen scoring 70 - 79 percent

BIRDSMANSHIP (HERDSMANSHIP)

CLASS

150 BIRDSMANSHIP

This required program gives individuals additional responsibility in the Exposition, offering an educational experience while meeting the public. All exhibitors must do three, one hour shifts of Birdsmanship or their premiums will be withheld.

Each shift requires two exhibitors, plus a parent, leader or instructor. If a group does not have an adult to participate, notify the Exposition manager. Until all shifts are full as required by FFA and 4-H, no additional slots will be available.

Signup for Birdsmanship will be on doodle (use the link below). Each time slot is capped at two participants until all slots are taken. Once signing up for Birdsmanship, the Exhibition must receive your entry form within ten days or your time slot will be opened back up. If you have trouble signing up or have questions, contact the Fair Manager.

BIRDSMANSHIP DUTIES

1. Check in at the beginning of your duty period with the office person in charge of birdsmanship. Each person is responsible for signing in and out, including the parent, leader or instructor.
2. Wear an apron and a birdsmanship badge with your name on it to identify yourself to the public and others as the person on birdsmanship duty.
3. Actively patrol the Poultry Barn or the area that is assigned to your care. Your duties will include feeding (during specified times) watering, cleaning cages, putting fresh shavings in cages or pens, keeping the floor and building looking in top shape (but not putting anyone's eye out with a broom handle), candling eggs at the table (or area for this project), or any other duties given you by the staff of the Washington Junior Poultry Exposition or board person. Sitting down, socializing, etc. is not actively patrolling. If there is no one at the candling table and your work is done in your assigned area, come to the office and ask if you can show people eggs or be given a different job. There may be only one person at the candling table at a time.
4. While patrolling, perform the following duties:
 - Talk to the public. Tell them about the poultry on display or the poultry that they are viewing. It is vital to give them accurate information. Try to answer any questions they may have about poultry or the group you come from (4-H or FFA). Offer information or take them to the Exposition office for help in answering their questions. Don't wait for them to ask. A suggested approach is to say, "I'm on barn duty. If there is anything I can tell you about our poultry, feel free to ask me."

- Gently inform the public that they shouldn't stick their fingers or anything else into the cages because it upsets the poultry and they may get hurt. If they would like to pet a baby chick, recommend they visit the Fair Farm, or, if available, to the area the Exposition has set up for this.
- Pick up litter (put it in the right place), stray tack, fallen or eaten cage cards, etc. and put them where they belong. If new cards are needed, come to the office for help. No personal belongings should be left sitting around the Poultry Barn. When these are found, bring them to the Exposition office so we can find the owner.
- Watch the poultry for any sign of distress or sickness. If you think there is a problem, notify the office. Pick up any eggs that may have been laid, unless there is a problem.
- Keep water dishes full and feed dishes 3/4 full. Birds will be fed three times a day, 9am, 1 pm, 7 pm.

5. Do not remove any animals from cages or from the barn unless the manager gives their approval.

Do not eat or drink while on duty.

Do not be rude to the public or anyone else. We are here for them. It is your show, but remember that we are at the Washington State Fair, and one of their guests.

6. At the end of your shift, check out with the office, return your birdsmanship badge and apron, and sign out. Remember to return your tools so the next shift can find them. Also remember that the pliers belong to the Exposition or the Washington State Fair, so be sure to return them.
7. If you can do more birdsmanship, it would be great. Remember, you must do at least three hours during the show.

950 Serama Table Top Show

The Table Top Show will be held under SCNA guidelines.

You must enter the show to enter in the Table Top Show.

NEW EVENT

EGG DISPLAY CONTEST

Friday, September 21, 7 pm in the Poultry Barn.

CLASS

960 Egg Display Contest

This new event will help show the large variety of eggs that fowl can lay, and shall display the role of eggs on the farm or table. Exhibitors are encouraged to use creativity to fill their display space (approximately 2 feet by 2 feet; specific dimensions are available from the fair manager after September 5th) in a way that showcases their eggs. Each display should include one dozen high quality eggs of various types, colors, and sizes. Diversity is encouraged.

Eggs will be inspected at check-in to verify minimal interior quality; eggs showing rot, blood, meat, or leaking will disqualify the display from the Judge's Choice prize. Exhibitors will have 30 minutes to assemble their displays on Friday, Sept. 21st between 7 and 7:30 pm. While pre-assembled components may be utilized in the display, exhibitors must put together their displays independently during this time. No additional assembly time will be allowed.

Public voting will determine People's Choice awards on Saturday and Sunday, with a $10 cash prize for each day. All displays, regardless of egg quality, are eligible for People's Choice awards. In addition, eligible displays, as determined at check-in, will be considered for a Judge's Choice award of $10 cash prize.
