FLORAL EXHIBITOR RULES

1. Please submit Exhibitor/Entry Pre-Registration information online by Monday, August 27, 2018, 10 pm. Floral exhibitors must pre-register online; see instructions on page 4.

For all POTTED specimens:

EXHIBITOR online pre-registration is required in ALL potted specimens classes.

For all CUT specimens:

Only EXHIBITOR online pre-registration is required, one registration per person for the Cut Floral Show. Class registration for all CUT specimens will be taken when you bring your entries to the Fair (includes all cut flowers, dahlias, roses).

Present your online registration receipt at the Blue Gate with your entries for admission on day of show.

2. See calendar on page 2 for show entry dates and times. All entries must be delivered by 8:30 am and must be complete and in place by 9 am on day of judging.
3. Exhibitors are NOT allowed in the building during judging.
4. Exhibitors are limited to three entries in any class, and where noted. Premiums will be awarded to first and second place only, (except Professional Fresh and Silk Designs).
5. Ribbons will be awarded to winners of first, second, third place and honorable mention. Premiums will be paid for listed classes only. Premiums will be mailed in November. Ribbons will NOT be mailed. You may pick up your ribbons in the Floral Department the last Sunday or the Monday after Fair.
6. When there are many entries in a class, there may be a sub-class with premiums. The class may not be divided into more than five sub-classes, and there must be at least three entries in sub-classes.
7. All plant material entered should have the common name and the botanical name on the entry tag. No exhibit may be entered in "Any Other Class" if there is a class for the exhibit.
8. An exhibitor may enter in only one of the following divisions: Novice, Amateur, or Professional. If it is determined that a crossover has occurred, all awards will be forfeited.

Schedules may be divided into four classes (except where noted).

- Classes for Juniors/Youth
- Classes for Novices
- Classes for Amateurs
- Classes for Professional and/or Commercial or Open Exhibitor Classification - see Dahlia rules.

A junior/youth shall be five through 18 years old. Indicate age on tag.

A Novice is a person who is inexperienced in the showing of a specific flower. See ruling in each flower division as to how long an exhibitor can stay in Novice division.

An Amateur is a person who grows plants for their own use and enjoyment, and not for the purpose of gaining a profit.

A Professional and/or Commercial exhibitor is a person who maintains a garden or other horticultural establishment for the purpose of gaining a profit, or a person who engages in activity for such a garden or establishment for compensation, or has had previous qualifications as a professional. See Dahlias rules for Open Exhibitor Classification.

9. No cut flowers will be saved and returned to exhibitors. Cut flowers must be displayed in containers furnished by the Fair, unless otherwise specified in the schedule.
10. FLORAL EXHIBITS MUST REMAIN UNTIL MONDAY, SEPT. 24, unless otherwise noted.
Pick up Exhibits:
 - Monday, Sept. 24, 8 am - 4:30 pm
Drive through the Service Gate ONLY – no pass required.
11. Baskets and containers must be clean, neat and in good condition. ALL BASKETS MUST HAVE FIXED HANDLES. HANGING BASKETS MUST HAVE HANGING APPARATUS ATTACHED.
12. Any plant material found having insects or disease will be put in quarantine and must be removed from the grounds within six hours after notification. After that time, the item will be destroyed.
13. Any ribbon or premium corrections must be reported by Friday, September 28, to the Superintendent.
14. The Floral staff uses every precaution to keep all flowers and plants safe. However, the staff is not responsible for damage caused by our Fair guests.
15. The Floral Department is not responsible for any damage to plant material on extra large exhibits caused by necessary repositioning of those exhibits. Please look for size restrictions, if any, in your category and keep your exhibit within the stated size requirements.
16. Important note to Professional Floral Designers: Please read and follow ALL SIZE REQUIREMENTS for your entries. Oversized entries will NOT be accepted.
17. All entries not specifically listed will be placed in the other class.

INDOOR POTTED PLANTS

- Each exhibitor is limited to three entries in each class, providing they are of a different variety or color.
- Identify variety on entry.
- Indoor Potted Plants divisions are not open to professional or commercial growers.
- Plants must be entered under correct classification where specific names of plants or plant families are given.

1882 Slanting Style (Shakan), similar to the formal and informal upright styles, except that the apex is to the right or left of vertical.	10.00	8.00

1883 Cascade Style (Kingai), has the top or apex of the tree horizontal to or hanging below the top edge of pot.	10.00	8.00

1884 Windswept Style (Fukinagashi), can basically follow the Formal, Informal, or Slanting styles, however, the branches must appear substantially windswept.	10.00	8.00

1885 Abstract or Freestyle (Bunjin), is very unrestricted in its conformation. It may violate many of the classical (above) bonsai styles, yet it is aesthetically pleasing. It may be strong and aggressive or thin and submissive.	10.00	8.00

1886 Twin Tree Style, two trees fitting any of the above styles.	10.00	8.00

1887 Forest Planting (Yose-Uye), three or more trees grouped to appear as a forest or group planting. Different types of trees may be used in a given planting.	10.00	8.00
1888 Landscape (Saiku), trees and rocks arranged to look like a landscape.	10.00	8.00
1889 Mame' Bonsai, this group includes all bonsai, nine inches or less in height, and not including the pot in that measurement.	10.00	8.00

DAHLIA SHOWS

GENERAL RULES FOR ALL DAHLIA SHOWS

- Exhibitors will be limited to a total of three entries in each class.
- Exhibitors must remain in the same classification for the current year. Once you enter Amateur classification, you may not go back to Novice classification. It is the same when you enter Open classification; you may not go back to Amateur classification.
- Variety must be indicated on entry. Blooms must be shown disbudded, with at least one act of foliage (a set of leaves). Disbudded means the removal of lateral buds along the stem of a flower to promote the development of a large terminal bloom for exhibition purposes.
- Any dahlia without a set of leaves will not be judged.
- Dahlias are to be entered according to the following sizes:
 - AA Size 10 inches and over
 - A Size 8 – 10 inches
 - B Size 6 – 8 inches
 - BB Size 4 – 6 inches
 - Miniature 4 inches and under(Oversize Dahlias may be shown in the next larger size)
- 1/2" tolerance allowed on the above five sizes:
 - Ball Over 3-1/2 inches
 - Min. Ball 2 – 3-1/2 inches
 - Pompon 2 inches and under
- Dahlias will be judged to and by A.D.S. and Federation of NW Dahlia Growers standards.
- No exhibit may be entered in "Any Other" class if there is a class for the exhibit.

OPEN CLASSIFICATION:

Experienced exhibitors - those moving up from Amateur and exhibitors that show in this class at federation shows.

AMATEUR CLASSIFICATION:

The advanced and experienced exhibitors that show in this class at federation shows. An exhibitor may stay in this classification 4 years and then moves up to Open classification.

NOVICE CLASSIFICATION:

Exhibitors that show in this class at federation shows. An exhibitor that shows for 3 years and them moves up to Amateur classification.

BEST IN SHOW: DAHLIA BASKET

Classes 2100 - 2136 $10 and Rosette

Baskets: No minimum number of blooms is required in any entry, unless otherwise specified, but the number of blooms must be in proportion to the size of the basket. The blooms in a basket are not required to have a set of leaves; other greens are allowed. One or more varieties are allowed in all classes. A balance of blooms is more desirable, with a minimum of at least three blooms of each type or size in a mixed basket. Baskets are required to have a handle.

DAHLIA BASKET SCORE CARD
QUALITY OF BLOOM – 50 points
COLOR 10 pts
Major faults – faded, blotchy, streaked, bruised [-1 to -6]
Minor faults [-1 to -3]
FORM 10 pts
Major faults – green centers, open centers, not true to type [-1 to -6] *Note: Do not disqualify for green/open centers.
Minor faults – irregular centers, gaps, thin, immature [-1 to -3]
SUBSTANCE 5 pts
Faults – ray flowers soft, failing, shriveled [-1 to -5]
DAHLIA STEM & FOLIAGE 5 pts
Faults – stem weak, willowy [-1 to -2]
Foliage – (if shown) too large, looks diseased, damaged [-2 to -5]
UNIFORMITY 20 pts
Major faults – different colors in like varieties, mixed and irregular centers [-3 to -10]
QUALITY OF ARRANGEMENT – 50 points
PROPORTION AND BALANCE 40 pts
Blooms too crowded, covering other blooms, no empty space. Not enough blooms for size of basket, Gaps in arrangement [-5 to -15]
Blooms placed in straight lines or facing unappealing directions [-3 to -10]
No blooms behind handle, or handle crossing directly in front of blooms, causing poor balance [-1 to 15]
Plane – ideal is dome shaped [-1 to -5]
BASKET 5 pts
No fixed handle. 1/3 to 1/2 of handle not showing. Poor condition. [-1 to -5]
FILLER 5 pts
Covering blooms, not covering staging material, detracting from blooms, not free of berries or flowers, back not finished [-1 to -5]
TOTAL SCORE – Note there is not a fixed score required to achieve a blue or red ribbon; rather scores are to determine rank of exhibits. Entries without competition in a class should be awarded blue ribbons unless there are major faults.
Things to remember: The main objective for a dahlia basket is to be a mass horticultural display of individual blooms, distinctively arranged to show quality and value of each bloom.
